COMMENTS INVITED ON PETITION FOR FORBEARANCE FILED BY QWEST CORPORATION REGARDING QWEST'S DSL SERVICE

WC Docket No. 04-416

Comments Due: January 5, 2005
Reply Comments Due: February 7, 2005

On November 10, 2004, Qwest Corporation (Qwest) filed a petition for forbearance, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 160(c), pertaining to xDSL services. In its petition, Qwest seeks forbearance from dominant carrier tariff regulation, rate averaging requirements, and resale at an avoided-cost discount, for Qwest's mass-market xDSL services. Qwest argues that the Commission has not taken the same deregulatory position toward incumbent LEC xDSL as it has toward cable modem service. As a result, only incumbent LECs – not cable companies and not competitive LECs – must comply with the full suite of Title II and common carrier regulations. Qwest identifies two pending proceedings that could potentially deregulate ILEC xDSL services, as well as a forbearance petition filed by BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. Qwest intends its petition for forbearance, however, to focus attention on the narrow pricing areas identified, which Qwest argues require expedited relief.

This public notice establishes certain procedural requirements relating to consideration of Qwest's petition. This matter shall be treated as a "permit-but-disclose" proceeding in accordance with the Commission's ex parte rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1200, 1.1206. Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentations must contain summaries of the substance of the presentations and not merely a listing of the subjects discussed. More than a one or two sentence description of the views and arguments presented generally is required. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b). Other rules pertaining to oral and written ex parte presentations in permit-but-disclose proceedings are set forth in section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b).

Pursuant to sections 1.415 and 1.419 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.415, 1.419, interested parties may file comments on Qwest's petition on or before January 3, 2005, and reply comments on or before February 2, 2005.
